Dear Chairman

Firstly I thank you for the opportunity to carry out an internal audit of accounts for your Council for the Year ended 31st March 2022

Having examined all accounts, vouchers, invoices etc. as presented to me by your new Clerk, I can confirm that having carried out a full and rigorous test on your accounts, I am satisfied that the figures reflect an accurate statement of the Council's financial position and all payments have been approved and minuted correctly. I consider that your reserves are adequate having regard to current levels of expenditure.

Apart from a few clerical errors in the recording of amounts and incorrect completion of documentation I am satisfied that there are no issues upon which I find it necessary to bring to your attention. I have summarized my observations in an action plan, which I have discussed with your Clerk, much of which he was already aware.

I trust my comments are helpful to you

Yours sincerely

Internal Auditor
